(b)	Mr. Lamb's influence on Derry, saved Derry from his life of frustration and alienation. Substantiate the above statement, citing evidences from the text 'On The Face Of It'.
Ans.	- Lamb refuses to show pity/ treat Derry as a victim - emphasises Derry is more than his burnt face - encourages Derry to watch, listen and think - gives his own example and shows physical disability is not a barrier- advises him to make the most of his life - shifts his focus from disability to capability- asks him to help in picking apples - Lamb says-you have two arms, two legs-if he wants, he can get on better than the rest - asks him to look beyond physical appearance (Beauty and Beast example) - locking oneself up due to fear is absurd (example of man who died staying at home) - Points to weeds to show everything has a place and beauty - In the end, Derry gathers courage and confidence/ asserts his independence –returns to garden- wants to look and listen (any other relevant point) (any three)	Step 1: Content-3 marks Step 2: Expression-2 marks	5
